(AP) — Two days after a gunman opened fire at a Jewish community center in the San Francisco Bay Area, a stranger tossed a note over his fence that said “This is your synagogue,” police said Wednesday. The wind carried the handwritten note across a neighbor’s yard. The incident at the Chabad of Poway on Saturday brought fear, anger, and confusion as Jews around the world and supporters took to social media to grieve and defend their religion and their community. Two days later, a man wearing a tie decorated with white supremacist symbols and three letters — “Jewish” — tossed the note over a fence at the nearby synagogue. Police later found another similar note at the house of the synagogue’s rabbi. Both notes were similar to a letter that was mailed to the synagogue but it was not known if they were mailed, mailed and thrown away or typed.
